HANDY HINTS

DECORATED SAUCER

Use a saucer, fill with damp sand and smooth off to a slightly domed finish. The saucer should then be completely covered with flowers and foliage to form a pattern. Colour blending, pattern, scale and finish are very important with no sand showing.

FLOWERS FOR THE (DINING) TABLE Should be equally beautiful from all sides. It should not be so high as to interfere with conversation across the table. Accessories such as candles are allowed.

PERSON/ANIMAL MADE FROM FRUIT AND/OR VEGIES – must be named. You can use toothpicks, pins, wire or any other means to hold your structure together, just as long as you CANNOT SEE THEM! Remember, this creature is to be made of things that grow in the garden – so what are you waiting for – get creative!
A MINIATURE GARDEN – use a shoe box lid or a small baking tray about the same size. The garden should be in proportion, and accessories are allowed.
